

GUIDE TO PAYROLL PROTECTION PROGRAM (PPP) LOAN FORGIVENESS

OVERVIEW

- ✓ PPP loan funds must be used for eligible payroll costs (at least 60%) and other eligible expenses ("Non-Payroll Costs"). PPP loans can cover 100% payroll costs.
- ✓ PPP loan funds must be used within a certain time period (known as the "Covered Period") to be eligible for forgiveness, which is either 8-weeks or 24-weeks, depending on when your loan was approved.
 - If your PPP loan was approved by SBA prior to June 5, you may choose either an 8-week (56 days) Covered Period or a 24-week (168 days) Covered Period.
 - If your PPP loan was approved by SBA on or after June 5, you have a 24-week (168 days) Covered Period.
 - In no event may the Covered Period extend beyond December 31, 2020.
 - Your Covered Period begins the day you receive your PPP loan funds in your account.
- ✓ For Non-Profits: If federal or restricted funding pays some employee's salaries, you should not use PPP funds to pay those salaries for the same period. This will be considered "double dipping" and affect loan forgiveness eligibility.
- ✓ To apply for loan forgiveness, work with your lender to complete the PPP Loan Forgiveness Application once the PPP loan funds have been exhausted or no later than 10 months after the last day of your Covered Period.

APPLICATION PROCESS & FORGIVENESS ELIGIBILITY

How do I apply for forgiveness on my PPP loan?

Borrowers should reach out to the lending institutions they applied for their PPP Loan with. Lending institutions will have their own systems and portals in place to process loan forgiveness applications.

- Guidelines are updated regularly by the SBA and can be found: Here
- Loan application can be found: Here
- For Sole Proprietors and Self employed: Here

What are forgivable uses of PPP funds?

To be forgiven, PPP loan funds must be used for eligible payroll costs (at least 60%) and other eligible business expenses (“Non-Payroll Costs”).

What are forgivable Payroll Costs?

Payroll Costs include the following payments paid by the borrower for any employee whose principal place of residence is in the United States:

- Salary, wage, commission, cash tip or similar compensation (must not exceed $100,000 annualized per employee);
- Vacation, parental, family, medical, or sick leave (other than qualified sick and family leave wages for which a credit is allowed under the Families First Coronavirus Response Act);
- Group health care benefits, including insurance premiums;
- Retirement benefits; and State and local taxes (but not federal taxes) assessed on the compensation of employees.

When do I apply for forgiveness on my PPP loan?

- Once you have used your PPP loan funds, even if you have not yet reached the end of your Covered Period
- You must apply for forgiveness within 10 months of the last day of your Covered Period (or APCP, if applicable).

How long do I have to use PPP funds?

PPP loan funds must be used within a certain time period (“Covered Period”) to be eligible for forgiveness.

- If your PPP loan was approved by SBA prior to June 5, you may choose either an 8-week (56 days) Covered Period or a 24-week (168 days) Covered Period.
- If your PPP loan was approved by SBA on or after June 5, you have a 24-week (168 days) Covered Period.
- In no event may the Covered Period extend beyond December 31, 2020.

My business hires 1099 and independent contractor workers. May I include payments to 1099 and independent contractors for purposes of loan forgiveness?

No. Independent contractors can obtain their own PPP loan to cover their compensation, so entities that hire independent contractors cannot include 1099 pay.

HOW TO AVOID LOAN FORGIVENESS REDUCTION & NONPROFIT SPECIFIC GUIDELINES

Determine loan forgiveness reduction based on a reduction in salaries or wages of more than 25%:

- Ensure that at least 60% of the loan proceeds used to pay permitted expenses are used for Payroll Costs and that no more than 40% are used for non-Payroll Costs.
- Avoid reducing employee headcount or compensation during the Covered Period.
- Borrowers can avoid having their loan forgiveness amount reduced if they restore an employee's pay. If by not later than December 31, 2020, the employee's annual salary or hourly wage is equal to or greater than their annual salary or hourly wage on February 15, 2020, the borrower's loan forgiveness is not reduced.

IMPORTANT: Borrowers will not be penalized for any FTE reductions if either of the following occurred:

- The borrower is unable to rehire individuals who were employees on February 15, 2020 and unable to hire similarly qualified employees for unfilled positions before December 31, 2020
- The borrower is able to document the inability to return to their February 15, 2020 level of business activity due to compliance with social distancing or other customer safety requirements

My nonprofit receives federal funding and/or restricted funding that covers some employee salaries.

Can I still use PPP funds to pay those employee salaries?

If other federal or restricted funding pays some employee's salaries, you should not use PPP funds to pay those salaries for the same period. Under current guidance, you must use at least 60% of PPP funds for Payroll Costs to maximize loan forgiveness, so we recommend you talk with your other funders to determine whether your other funding can be used for alternative purposes, or during a different time period, to allow your organization to obtain the maximum benefit from your PPP loan.

Non-Federal Restricted Funding: If other funding sources are restricted to payroll use (and funder won't allow broader uses or time periods), you should not include that payroll amount in your PPP forgiveness request
