

A Proclamation Congratulating Shannon Schroeder on Receiving the Illinois Computing Educators “2017 Educator of the Year Award”

Whereas; Illinois Computing Educators select one classroom teacher each year for an “Educator of the Year” award; and

Whereas, educators are nominated for this award by colleagues, fellow teachers, students, and school administrators who feel that the nominee has made outstanding contributions to the integration of technology and the improvement of teaching and learning in their school or district; and

Whereas, once nominated, candidates must complete an extensive application process that is reviewed, evaluated, and scored by members of the Illinois Computing Educators Educator of the Year Committee; and

Whereas, selections are then confirmed by the Illinois Computing Educators Executive Board; and

Whereas, Shannon Schroeder teaches eighth grade Language Arts at Homer Junior High School in Homer Glen; and

Whereas, Shannon Schroeder is passionate about teaching with craftsmanship and meaningful technology integration, sharing her learning through leading workshops, and experimenting with new tools and techniques in her classroom.

Now, Therefore, I, George Yukich, Mayor of the Village of Homer Glen, on behalf of the Village Board and Citizens of the Village of Homer Glen, do hereby bestow Special Recognition to Shannon Schroeder for being awarded the “2017 Educator of the Year Award” by the Illinois Computing Educators. The Citizens of the Village of Homer Glen sincerely appreciate her outstanding, dedication and conscientious work to educate our students in the Village of Homer Glen.
